THE EXTENSION OF ARBITRATION

Dutch Delegate Argues it is Only Practical Way to Secure Limitation of Armaments.

Asser (Netherlands) expressed the opinion that the extension of arbitration was the only practical way to tion was the only practical way to bring about limitation of armaments. Joseph H. the standpoint of humanity as well as of international law. Germany, Great Britain and Mexico supported the American proposition.

Mr. Choate, supporting the proposal for the establishment of a permanent court of arbitration, quoted from the letter written by President Roosevelt to Andrew Carnegie on April 5, and read at the international peace congress in New York. He said that the instructions given to the American delegates were to see that judges of this court be selected from different countries and that they should represent the different systems of law and procedure and the most important languages in the world. The court was to be of such dignity, consideration and rank, that the best and ablest jurists could accept appointment thereto. The whole world must have absolute confidence in their judgments.

One thing that prevented more frequent recourse to The Hague tribunal as created by the conference of 1899, Mr. Choate said, had been the expense, and the United States proposed that the expenses of the new court and the salaries of the judges be borne by the powers in common. This would make the court free to whoever appealed to it. Mr. Choate then proposed that a suitable committee be appointed to frame a constitution for and decide upon the powers and character of the projected court, saying he thought it would be well to have 17 judges instead of 15, so that the country representation be more general. In conclusion Mr. Choate said:

"It is six weeks since this conference first assembled, and there is certainly no time to lose. We have done much to regulate war and very little to prevent it. Let us unite on this great pacific measure and satisfy the world that the second peace conference really desires that in the future peace and not war be the nominal condition of civilized nations."

The general opinion expressed tonight is that the real peace conference began today with the initiative of the American delegates, who are praised for their determination to carry a logical proposition that is believed

DRUNKEN DRIVER KILLS FIREMAN OF THE MAINE.

Newpork News, Va., Aug. 1.—Garret Walsh, a first class fireman belonging to the crew of the battleship Maine, was killed, and chief master-at-arms, T. F. Haddox, and Chief Baker J. Ackerman, of the same ship, were wounded, the former probably fatally, by Fred Gutierres, a "beach wagon" driver in Phoebus late tonight. Gutierres was Phoebus late tonight. Gutierres was arrested,

The tragedy grew out of a quarrel over paying fares. The sailors had employed Gutierres to drive them and a sick shipmate to Old Point Comfort. En route to get the sick man the driver stopped in front of the Palace hotel to get a drink. The sailors, anxious to catch the launch out to their ship, asked the driver to forego his drink, and an argument over the payment of the fares then started. According to spectators, Gutierres caught Walsh in the collar and jerked him out of the back door. Ackerman and a soldier named Smith followed. Then Gutierres stabbed Ackerman in the arm with a knife. Flourishing his weapon, the driver threatened the sailors and soldiers, and Walsh fled into

ONE BOX OF CUTICURA CURED THEM ALL

"I have five boys, from five to eleven years of age, who were affected some time last winter by some kind of skin disease. The worst parts of the body were around the arms and hands, where small pimples formed and itched. They suffered for two months so that they could not sleep at night. I noticed an advertisement about the Cuticura Remedies and we made a trial of one or two cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment which gave great satisfaction. I washed their bodies with Cuticura Soap and then applied Cuticura Ointment every other day. Since then they have all been healthy. A. E. EXPENDITURES EXCEEDED RECEIPTS BY $11,000,000.

Washington, Aug. 1.—The comparative monthly statement of the government's receipts and expenditures, issued today shows that for the month of July, 1907, the total receipts were $55,906,465 and the disbursements $66,813,345. leaving a deficit for the month of about $11,000,000. This deficit is explained by the fact that at the beginning of each fiscal year nearty all the appropriations made at the the beginning of each fiscal year nearly all the appropriations made at the last sesson of Congress become available and large sums are immediately withdrawn from the treasury. It is a rule, with hardly an exception, that each July shows a deficit. A year ago it was about $13,500,00. The receipts from customs last month amounted to $28,836,448, which is nearly $2,700,000 in excess of July, 1906.

Internal revenue, $22,840,304; in-crease, $738,000, Miscellaneous, $4,229,812; increase,

The expenditures for July, 1907, aggregate almost exactly $1,000,000 more than for July, 1906, the reductions being balanced by nearly $4,000,000 increase on account of the construction of the Panama canal.

BUSINESS PROSPECTS.

Ex-Director of the Mint Roberts Thinks They Are Excellent.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—George E. Roberts former director of the mint, assumed his new position as president of the Commercial National bank on day night, clearing up his work as director of the mint,

"The prospects for business are excellent throughout the country," said Mr. Roberts. "I believe that the slight check we have experienced during the past few months has been a good thing. It has proved beyond question that business in this country is on a firm footing.

question that business in this country is on a firm footing.

"Capital undoubtedly will be invested pretty near to the limit, and the prief period of stringency through which business has just passed served to show that the resources of the country were great enough to withstand any temporary pressure that over investment may cause. The country was never in a more prosperous condition than it is now, and business was never on a sounder basis."

SOCIETY WOMAN SURROUNDS HERSELF WITH MYSTERY.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 1.—The very life and happiness of Mrs. Nannie Leigh Long, the society woman who died recently in St. Louis, depended upon the mystery with which she surrounded herseif and which has attracted such widespread attention, according to Mrs. C. E. Beards, lee of this city, who recognized the published picture of the dead woman as the one who had strangely come into her life several years ago. Mrs. Beardslee says that 15 years ago she decided to adopt a girl baby, and for this purpose went to the Cleveland orphanage. There were no girls that suited her, but she was attracted by a baby boy. She adopted the baby. Its linen was marked "Ralph." Later a young woman, apparently of refinement and wealth, appeared and said the boy was her son. She wanted this information kept a secret. The boy is now attending school in Pittsburg, According to Mrs. Beardslee, the mother of the boy was Mrs. Long.

PROMPT MEASURES TO SUPPRESS BELFAST STRIKE

Belfast, Aug. 1 .- Having secured the presence in Belfast of a strong military force capable of dealing with any possible development in the police strike, the government has taken vizorous measures, dismissed the leaders of the strike movement and promised, through the lord lieutenant, the Earl of Aberdeen, to take under consideration any genuine grievances presented through the proper channels.

genuine grievances presented through the proper channels.

This prompt action on the part of the authorities, in the opinion of many, will avert the serious development of what at one time appeared to be a dan-gerous situation. Additional troops reached the city tonight, but everything remains quiet.

It is quite impossible to predict what will happen at the parade of the disaffected police to morrow, but the belief is general that there is much difference of opinion among the constabulary regarding the advisibility of proceeding to extreme measures. The authorities, however, will neglect no precautions in disposing their military forces tomorrow to meet any possible emergency. A peremptory message was dispatched to Arklow today ordering that all available members of the constabulary in county Wicklow should be sent immediately to Belfast. The message caused a sensation among the Arklow constables, who declared their determination to stay by their Belfast comrades.

SHE ATE ONIONS.

New York, Aug. 2.—Mrs. Catherine Gilligan, at the age of 107 years and 4 months is dead at her home in the Bronx. She had lived in New York 28 years, coming here from Ireland at the age of 79 to join her eight children. Mrs. Gilligan ascribed her longevity to her habit of eating onions at every meal and her refusal to worry about anything. She never tasted medicine.

HAVING NARROW ESCAPE.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Coming into harbor with a heavy tow last night, the tug Chicago heeled over just east of the Rush street bridge, across the Chicago river, turning turtle with four men on board. The crew grabbed boards and whatever else they could find as the vessel partly righted itself, and kept afloat until they could grab life lines thrown from the steamer Fleetwood.

Capt. McClinn of Milwaukee, who is nearly 70 years eld, had the narrowest escape. He was practically imprisoned in the pilot house, when his craft went down. He climbed through the 18-inch window while under water and was badly injured in doing so.

The wreck was witnessed by hundreds of passengers on offbound excursion boats lying at the dodts.

All lake traffic across the river, practically undernaged, waiting to be pumped out.

tically undernaged, waiting to be pumped out.

The tug was towing in the steamer Muncy of the Anchor line. The tow was leaded heavily with grain and was coming in stern first for the reason that it is impossible to turn round except in the outer harbor. The Muncy is $50 feet long, with a $60 foot beam.

Capt. McGinn seld the Chicago was close to the stern of the Muncy and going hard, trying to take it clear of an abutment. The churning of the big boat's propeller and the heavy strain on the smaller craft caused it to Reel over, until it took in water on the starboard side. The tug tripped on the tow line and before the crew could cut the hawser it turned turtle.

MURDERED HIS DAUGHTER BECAUSE SHE WAS UGLY.

Vienna, Aug. 2.—A Hungarian peasant at Neusandec, charged with murdering his 18-year-old daughter, admitting the crime, but pleaded that she was so ugly he had no chance of getting her married. The jury decided that this plea established extenuating circumstances and brought in a verdict of manslaughter. The court accepted this and sentenced the prisoner to three years' imprisonment.

NEGRO JANITOR CHARGED WITH THEFT OF $8,500.

Pittsburg, Aug. 2.—Because $8,500 mysteriously disappeared from the First National bank of Turtle Creek, Thomas Jordan, the negro janitor, is in jail in default of $9,000 bail on a charge of larceny. He protests his in fail in default of $3,000 ball on a charge of larceny. He protests his innocence.

At a hearing before Justice Bryans, Cashier Thomas W. Carroll testified that when he left the bank Wednesday evening he failed to put away $5,500 in currency. It was left on the counter inside the paying teller's window. When the cashier returned yesterday morning the money was gone.

It was decided that the janitor was the only person who had a key to the bank at night, he should be arrested. Dr. A. L. Trevaski, vice president of the bank, made the information.

Over the telephone Cashier Carroll denied that any money of the institution was missing and was unable to account for the fact that Jordan was in the county jail charged with having stolen between $8,000 and $9,000 of the bank's money. Carroll acknowledged he had experienced some difficulty with Jordan, but affirmed it was only a matter of disorderly conduct and had nothing to do with the loss of money.

BEGINNING AUGUST 1st, I will cut prices on my line of Summer Suits. It is really not quite right to do this -the clothes don't deserve it, for their quality is such that they are worth the full price every time. The prices do not justify a cut, for my system is always to price my goods fairly and honestly in the first place. Nevertheless, beginning this morning, I will reduce prices as follows:

33 1-3% Off on all Light and Mixed Suits 25% Off on all Blues and Blacks

These suits will be just as good to wear next year as they are this, as they are regarded in the clothing trade as

50% Off on all Straw Hats Including Panamas $1.25 Negligee Shirts, 85c

The announcement of the se prices is sure to bring in a throng of buyers, and my advice would be to come early. "It pays me to sell good clothes," and it surely will pay any man to buy them during this sale.
